THE CITY

Sicily and Catania are wonders of the Mediterranean, Catania is the second largest and most important city in Sicily. It extends between the Ionian Sea and the active volcano Etna, the largest volcano in Europe. Catania was founded in 729 BC and was one of the first Greek colonies in Sicily. Romans, Arabs, Aragonese, Normans, and Spaniards brought their cultural contributions and innovations to the territory over the centuries. Today, its cultural nature, literature, music, theater, traditions, food, and surrounding nature are recognized worldwide. The center of Catania itself is a concentration of unique beauties. The characteristic baroque buildings stand out in the streets of lava stone.

The Elephant Fountain is the symbol of the city, in which the elephant carved in lava stone supports an Egyptian obelisk. The elephant faces the Cathedral, dedicated to Saint Agatha. One of the most relevant places in Baroque Catania is the “Via dei Crociferi,” where magnificent Baroque churches and noble 18th-century palaces overlook the street. In this street, you can admire the masterpiece of Vaccarini and the Church of San Giuliano. Among the architectural landmarks are also the Ursino Castle, the ancient ruins of the Roman Theater, and the Greek Amphitheater. The Pescheria, the colorful open-air fish market, is a must-see for its sounds and atmosphere. It cannot be forgotten that Catania is home to one of the oldest universities in the world: the Siculorum

Gymnasium, founded in 1434.

Today, Catania is a treasure trove of history and modernity, more importantly, it is the starting point for a gran tour of Sicily that invites to immerse yourself in the beauty of the island: Taormina, Acitrezza, Acicastello, Caltagirone, Piazza Armerina, Syracuse (Ortigia), Agrigento, Noto, Modica, Palermo, Monreale, Scopello, Ragusa, Ibla, Aeolian Islands, Cefalù, San Vito Lo Capo, Selinunte, Trapani, Alcantara Gorges, Tindari, Castelmola, Marzamemi, Vendicari, Palazzolo Acreide, Favignana, Erice.
